

Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC)

Army ROTC is a leader development program focused on producing highly skilled and ethical leaders deeply committed to service to their community and country. Instead of receiving a major or minor, students completing this program receive commissions as U.S. Army officers. After graduation, newly commissioned officers serve either full or part time in the Regular Army, Army Reserve, or Army National Guard.

All students are eligible to enroll in any Basic Course (freshman and sophomore level) class for credit, regardless of academic major. Only students meeting pre-requisites and contracted for future military service as officers are permitted to enroll in Advanced Course (junior and senior level) classes. Full tuition scholarships are available for competitive students that meet all qualifications to serve as Army officers.

Over-enrollment and late enrollment for ROTC classes is authorized. Freshmen are allowed to enroll above 15 credits for ROTC courses.

Each ROTC course is worth 3.0 free-elective credits.

Contracted students must enroll in the appropriate ROTC course each semester. Additionally, these students must maintain a minimum 2.0 term and cumulative GPA each semester or risk loss of benefits or disenrollment from the program. Contracted students may not change majors or drop classes without permission of the Professor of Military Science (Department Chair).
