

Catholic Humanities Minor

Required Courses:

- HUM 175: Introduction to Humanities (3 credits)
- HUM 325: The Catholic Intellectual Tradition (3 credits)
- HUM 480: Humanities Capstone (3 credits)
- Electives (3): Additional thematically related courses chosen in consultation with the Program Director, at least one of which is at the 300-level or above. (9 credits)

Other Information:

- Depending on the interest of the student, these are typically taken within the Humanities Program or within the Departments of Music, Art and Art History, Foreign Languages, Theater Dance and Film, Theology, Philosophy, English, and History and Classics. Courses in other departments are possible with the permission of the Director. Students will be required to organize these courses around a unifying theme. Themes will be related to the Program's four foundational subject areas: God, the human person, society, and beauty.
